Original Plan/Agenda for UCW Project Inter-Agency Meeting
on Good Practices in Combating Child Labour
Geneva, 20-21 March 2003
Annex 1

Schedule:
- Thursday 20 March: 9.30-17.00
- Friday 21 March: 9.30-17.00

Part I: Current status
1. Introductions
   - Welcomes
     - Frans Roselaers (IPEC Director)
     - Furio Rosati (Project Coordinator UCW/"Florence Project")
   - Introductions
   - Review of agenda, plan and desired outcomes for the workshop

2. Background and context to Good Practices
   - Furio – how good practices fit into other UCW activities
   - Burt – background and overview to the rationale, approaches, and lessons learned about what makes for an effective good practices/knowledge management system
   - IPEC work on good practices (Peter with Burt – what has been done to date, why, status of the draft guidelines, etc.)

3. Agency presentations
   - Current status
   - Work that has/is been done on approaches to identifying and sharing good practices
   - How good practices information can be useful, complement other things going on
     - UNICEF
       - Education as a Preventive strategy Against Child Labour (operating in 35 countries) – illustration of UNICEF’s approach to good practices
       - Bangladesh
     - World Bank
       - Presentation on use of good practices in child labour
     - IPEC:
       - Good practices in Gender Mainstreaming
       - Experience with developing good practices from interventions on Children in Sexual Exploitation in East Africa
       - "Including the Excluded: Combating Child Labour through Education" – an approach to the development of an approach for identifying and sharing good practices among networks and others working in the area
Part II: Where to go from here

4. A good practices system/approach, discussing considerations such as:
   - Using good practices
     - Consideration of the range of potential users of good practices information (e.g. grassroots practitioners, managers at various levels, policy and planning, other
     - By each of the three agencies, others engaged in combating child labour
     - What types of information will facilitate use
     - Implications of user needs for approach to good practices, taking into account the range of potential users and different requirements/prefences
   - What we mean by good practices, e.g.
     - Criteria
     - Scale
     - Levels
     - Etc.
   - What needs to be done, e.g.
     - How to identify
     - Validating good practices
     - Storing/maintaining good practices information
     - Sharing and dissemination
     - Implications for generic good practices guidelines

5. What needs to be done, next steps in short and medium term, towards a common or at least compatible approach to good practices
   - Within each agency
   - Immediate follow up, e.g. generic good practices guidelines
   - Common, concrete initiatives
     - Current Florence Project phase
     - Second phase

6. Conclusion
   - Review of key decisions and action steps
   - Brief concluding remarks by all participants